Reworking the contemporary Engineered Bedale in a robust wax finish, the Ashby is a stylish, practical winter-ready jacket.

Constructed in Barbour's signature 6oz Sylkoil waxed cotton, with a matte finish and a comfortable, lived-in feel.

Slightly more tailored than the Bedale, yet still allowing room for essential winter layering, classic features include a storm fly front with stud fastenings, smart sit-down cord collar, handwarmer & two generous bellow pockets.

Incredibly versatile and ideal for everyday use, this functional jacket features an interactive front zip and is fully compatible with Barbour's optional zip-in liners.
