Seeland Celsius Heat Jacket Pine Green

Turn up the heat and elevate cold-weather comfort with the Celsius Heat Jacket.

Featuring back and chest panel heat technology, this jacket offers an adjustable temperature button with three distinct heat levels.

Enhanced by an insulating silver film lining and synthetic fibre insulation, ensuring optimal warmth retention, it can provide up to 10 hours of heating.

Setting aside the fantastic technology, practical features include stretch panels for mobility and zipped pockets for utility.

Power Bank not included but can be purchased separately. Waistcoat style also offered.

Embrace the chill and take control of your warmth this season.

UK Sizes: M - XL.
