Description

Outback Two Burner Stove

The Outback 2 Burner Stove is a lightweight, compact, and versatile solution for cooking hearty meals outdoors—perfect for camping, fishing, hiking, or picnics.

Weighing just 2.4kg, it's easy to carry and quick to set up, with a portable design and folding lid. The rear lid and side windshields offer reliable protection on breezy days, helping you maintain a steady flame.

The Piezo ignition system provides match-free lighting, while two independently adjustable push-and-turn control knobs give you full control over each burner.

Cleaning is simple thanks to the removable chrome-plated pan grate and easy-wipe cooking surface. Whether you're cooking breakfast at base camp or making dinner on the go, this stove is the dependable outdoor companion you've been looking for.

Please Note: Hose and Regulator not included
