Description

Armorall Microfibre Extra Large Drying Towel

A microfibre car drying towel is a must-have for achieving a streak-free finish after every wash.

Made from a durable blend of nylon and polyester fibres, it's designed to be super absorbent, soft, and safe on all surfaces.

Capable of holding up to 8 times its weight in water, it quickly lifts moisture without scratching paintwork or leaving lint behind.

Machine washable and suitable for both car and household use, it's the perfect finishing touch for your cleaning routine.
