Description

Chelwood Chelute Levelling Rake 700 x 250mm

Crafted for both professionals and dedicated gardeners, this reversible and infinitely extendable galvanised steel Trulute is the go-to tool for precise levelling and spreading of top dressing across lawns.

Beyond levelling, it's also ideal for preparing ground before turfing, as well as for general raking and surface cleaning.

The robust ash wood handle offers strength and ergonomic comfort, making it easy to use over extended periods.

For larger areas, an extendable version is available separately, offering a longer working surface—perfect for larger lawns and open spaces.

Handle: 1800 x 28mm.

Total Length: 1880mm.
