Description

STIHL MS 251 C-BE Petrol Chainsaw

Top-range domestic chainsaw for demanding property maintenance tasks

The STIHL MS 251 C-BE is a premium petrol chainsaw designed for homeowners who require power, reliability and ease of use. Whether you're cutting firewood, carrying out timber construction, or tackling property maintenance, this model delivers outstanding performance.

Featuring STIHL ErgoStart for smooth, easy starting and Quick Chain Tensioning (B) for tool-free chain adjustments, the MS 251 C-BE ensures both comfort and efficiency. Its high-torque engine offers impressive cutting capability, while STIHL's 2-MIX engine technology reduces fuel consumption by up to 20% and cuts emissions by up to 70% compared to standard STIHL 2-stroke engines.

Extend Your Domestic Warranty

Receive a 3-year domestic warranty (instead of the standard 2 years) when you purchase 5 litres of STIHL MotoMix® fuel alongside this product. We will register the extended warranty at the point of purchase.

Important Usage & Safety Information

Chainsaws must be used with care and appropriate training. Always wear protective clothing and equipment.

If you're new to chainsaws or uncertain about safe handling, we strongly recommend using our Click & Collect service. This allows you to collect the machine from a STIHL Approved Servicing Dealer, where full guidance and setup support can be provided.
