Description

Quayside Clipper Oak/Chestnut Deck Shoe

One of the first classic Quayside shoes to be worn and trusted by sailors for over thirty years now finds itself equally as functional on terra firma and proving a timeless addition to any gents wardrobe.

Handmade from Nubuck with pull-up leathers, the Gents Clipper also features a fully cushioned foot bed and padded tongue for a soft comfortable feel alongside strong leather laces threaded through traditional brass eyelets.

The slip resistant rubber soles make them ideal for a day out sailing or alternatively as a smart casual option if you prefer your feet to stay firmly on dry land.
