Alan Paine Berwick Ladies Dark Navy Waterproof Jacket (Classic Fit)

The greater demand for ‘where town meets country clothing’ has seen the broadening of the Berwick Ladies Country Collection this season and the introduction of a stunning new Dark Navy Waterproof Jacket which delivers all the outdoor performance and comfort you need, whatever the weather.

Crafted with a water repellent and breathable outer, this robust and hard wearing garment features a fleece lined body with soft mock inside collar and comes armed with an array of practical elements such as a convenient two way zipper, generously sized bellow pockets, neat side hand warmer pockets and two concealed zip secure internal pockets for those all important essentials.

The Classic Cut of the Ladies Berwick will provide an overall comfort fit with plentiful space for layering and has been tastefully finished with soft feminine touches including a detachable hood with mock fake fur trim, belted buckle waistband for a tailored flattering look and matching belted funnel collar for days when you really need to keep the cold at bay. Truly a super smart addition to the line and one you’re bound to love this season and beyond. Blue is definitely the new Green.

Currently available in UK Sizes 10-18.
