Description

STV The Big Cheese Rat Killer Grain Bait Sachet 150g

Ready-to-use 150g bait packs from the Big Cheese use natural grain bait in chew-thru packs so you don't have to handle any bait.

Simply place one packet of bait in a bait station and wait for the rodents to chew through the pack, eat the bait and the job is done.

Please note although only one dose of the bait is needed to kill the rodent, it can take up to two weeks for them to die.

Tamper-resistant bait station must be used by law when baiting for rats and highly advisable for controlling mice.

Click & Collect item only.
