Description

Hoggs of Fife Struther Smock Waterproof Field Jacket

We're reliably informed Keepers, Foresters and Shepherds will love the Hoggs new Struther waterproof smock which means the rest of us can be reassured that there's no outdoor job too tough for this hard wearing garment.

Designed to keep you dry during active outdoor pursuits, it features a durable nylon-reinforced canvas outer and mesh liner to wick away moisture when energy levels start to get up.

With three external zippered pockets including a large smock pocket for more accessible items such as map, binoculars etc, an adjustable fleece lined hood & drawcord waist, the Struther jacket packs away easily and particularly lends itself to long periods spent outdoors in unpredictable weather.
