Description

Ward 100L Slimline Water Butt

The Slimline Water Butt lockable with lockable lid is an easy and effective way of conserving rainwater plus a great way to provide plants with natural nutrients you won't find in tap water.

A fitting alternative to hosepipes during periods of drought and water shortages which not only helps the environment but improves your home's water efficiency too.

For best results, connect to a gutter down pipe and position on the Ward Slimline Water Butt Stand to allow easier access with buckets, containers & watering cans.

Overall dimensions: Height 95cm - Width 35cm; ideal for smaller gardens or when pushed for space.

We have a great selection of products to keep your garden looking its best this summer so why not browse more irrigation solutions in our Water Distribution range.
