Description

Seeland Buckthorn Overtrousers Shaded Olive

As the name suggests, the Buckthorn over trousers are very hardwearing and can be worn over your ordinary hunting trousers as an extra protective layer.

Crafted in a durable fabric, designed to protect your trousers when beating in the dense undergrowth, they boast the waterproof and breathable SEETEX® membrane which is highly breathable.

Featuring a protected two-way zip on each side making them easier to slide on & off with Velcro side plackets, the leg hem is both reinforced and adjustable for greater comfort and freedom of movement.

UK Size: XXL ONLY. Please refer to size guide before ordering.
