Description

Seeland Hawker Fleece Jacket Pine Green

The Hawker fleece is a half-zip variant in a soft, stretch fabric with the structure allowing air to circulate between the fleece and the outer layer for best possible insulation & breathability.

It is been designed with an ergonomic fit that allows full freedom of movement and thus an ideal warming mid layer in cold weather.

Combines well with the Hawker Trek jacket so you can adapt your clothing to the weather, pursuit and activity level.

Currently available in UK Sizes: M - 3XL.
