Seeland Hawker Trek Jacket Pine Green

The Hawker Trek jacket is an ultralight garment, designed for trekking and sporting pursuits, where freedom of movement is the main priority.

Crafted from a thin, stretch fabric and lined with mesh nylon, allowing air and moisture to circulate and evaporate more quickly.

The stretch fabric and the jacket's close fit make it an ideal choice when carrying a full pack over long distances in hilly terrain.

For swift head to toe protection combine with the Seeland Hawker Trek trousers to give a lightweight and breathable option when out exploring nature and other outdoor adventures.

Currently available in UK Sizes: L - XL.
