Seeland Woodcock Advanced Trousers Shaded Olive

These Woodcock Advanced trousers are designed in the classic English game-shooting style but the traditional outer hides a wealth of carefully thought-out details.

For optimum comfort and freedom of movement, the trousers are made from a stretch fabric with articulated knees and like the Advanced jacket, they also have a windproof and waterproof SEETEX® membrane.

The trousers feature thigh pockets with drain holes, ankle adjustments and braces buttons at the waist, so even if the beats are only coming slowly and the weather is keeping the birds from flying high, you are guaranteed to remain comfortable for the entire shoot.

Team together with the Woodcock Advanced Jacket for an extremely smart look in any shooting party, but without restricting the purpose of the day.

Please refer to Seeland size chart when ordering.
