Description

Barbour Westmorland Wax Gilet Olive

From the Country collection, the new Westmorland is a modern version of the staple bodywarmer yet with the same robust protection as its forerunners.

Tailored to a relaxed fit with plenty of room for layering, it's constructed using Sylkoil wax offering a more flexible feel and a drier handle than the traditional Thornproof finish.

Awash with signature features that have both style and practicality in mind, it's lightly wadded for extra warmth with a two-way front zip and studded storm fly to seal out wind and rain.

Finished with an array of pockets for all important essentials and a place to warm cold hands, it's an absolute must for those country pursuits where you demand both protection and freedom of movement.

UK sizes: L-2XL.
