Description

Husqvarna Children's Remote Control Toy Automower

Husqvarna meets Robot Wars with this latest release in kids play!

Designed for indoor use, the battery-powered toy bot faithfully copies the full size version and the latest innovation in robotic mowing.

Operated by means of a remote controlled handset, it can be driven with full directional steering and features flashing lights upon start up & sounds.

Not just for little'uns, but big kids at heart too and a great de-stressing tool for any office or workshop space!

AA batteries included.

Suitable for children 3 and over.
