Description

Harkila Anti-Bug Trail Socks

The Trail sock is made with lightweight, insulating, and breathable high-performance Dryarn fabric designed with mesh-points for extra breathability.

It's a classic left/right sock design and to add an additional level of comfort, the top of the sock is designed wider and higher, and a 3D knit has been added to the pre-toe.

The entirety of the sock has been treated with an anti-bug finish so that the wearer can experience the wilderness without the worry of tick or mosquito bites.

Sizes: S - XL.

Team with Harkila Trial Trousers for complete leg protection.
