Description

Bosch Advanced Rotak 36-650 Cordless Lawnmower

This cordless lawnmower offers exceptional results with very quiet and convenient mowing. The ProSilence feature reduces the sound omitted by up to 75% and also filters out unpleasant noise through its acoustically enhanced design features. The AdvancedRotak height adjustment has one simple button to choose one of seven cutting levels ranging from 25 mm to 80 mm, so the mowing can start right away. Apart from mowing, the LeafCollect blade cuts grass and can be used to collect leaves.

A better posture for improved comfort – The ergonomically shaped telescopic ErgoSlide Handles can be adjusted easily to the user's height. Multiple adjustment points provide a healthy posture and a comfortable working position regardless of the person's size.
