Description

Purposed designed with a Bypass action for left handed users, a serious pruner for everyone from keen gardeners to professionals alike.

Recommended for intensive and prolonged pruning, the Felco No. 9 is a left-handed version of the No. 8 model with all the same ergonomic features.

Like all Felco secateurs, they features light alloy handles which are shaped to act as an extension of the forearm. The anvil blade handle is designed to prevent the pruner from sliding through the hand.

Features include Swiss precision, hardened steel blades set on dowel pins for easy maintenance & replacement along with wire-cutting notch/sap groove.

Handles are crafted from forged Aluminium which are comfortable, sturdy & lightweight plus the ergonomic design offers hand & wrist protection with optimisation of the force exerted.

Length: 8 1/4 inches | Recommended cutting capacity 1.0 inch.

Weight 245g.
