Description

Seeland Avail Camo Trousers InVis Green

Like the jacket, the Avail Camo trousers are made from a brushed and low-noise tricot fabric in discreet InVis Green, allowing you to blend into most surroundings when hunting.

They feature the two-layer windproof and waterproof SEETEX® membrane to keep you dry, even when caught out in a passing squall or two.

Equipped with two slanted front pockets and a large pocket on the left thigh including cord pulls, so easy to open with gloves or with frozen fingers.

The trousers also have velcro adjustments at the ankles, so they can be tightened around the boots to prevent ingress from dirt & mud.

Team together with the Seeland Avail Camo Jacket for assured full freedom of movement and ultimate disguise.

Please refer to Seeland size chart when ordering.
