Description

ICL Accupro 1000 Rotary Fertilizer & Seed Spreader

The Accupro 1000 is a high quality multi-purpose spreader that delivers an even and balanced spread pattern.

The spreader can be used for the precise application of granular fertilisers and grass seed and can play an essential labour saving role in large garden / small paddock maintenance.

Fitted with 22cm pneumatic wheels to give a more comfortable feel across uneven, bumpy ground, the steel 'T' bar handlebar has been designed for a more natural flow when handling.
