Description

Alan Paine Berwick Ladies Olive Waterproof Shooting Coat (Shooting Fit)

The Berwick Ladies Shooting Coat is no exception to the rich heritage and traditional values of the Alan Paine brand and the perfect addition to your country wardrobe this season and beyond.

Crafted with a water repellent outer, this robust and hard-wearing garment is armed with a full compliment of details to keep you warm and comfortable in the most testing of weather conditions and all the functionality needed for successful day out shooting or stalking.

Custom designed in Alan Paine's 'Shooting Fit', the jacket features an adjustable drawstring cord to support movement and an interactive zip to accommodate the 'AP Aylsham Fleece Waistcoat' when more layering is required. Also featured are generously sized hand warmer and cartridge pockets, two secure internal pockets for those all important essentials and a map pocket positioned under the front placket. Finished with waterproof storm cuffs and drip strip lining, this Berwick Ladies Shooting Coat is sure to set you up for a great days sport in the countryside.

Currently available in UK Sizes 10-18.
