Description

Harkila Norja Warm Olive

A lightweight cardigan engineered in Actiwool, a wool blend mix with insulating and moisture wicking properties that delivers exceptional warmth yet remains breathable. The wool has been further impregnated with a thin layer of wax which makes the surface soft and the material water-repellent, windproof and durable so no further need for old fashioned heavy layering.

Simple styling with contrasting details on hard wearing areas and finished with an array of useful features, the Norja Cardigan is ideal performance wear for high energy outdoor activities such as hiking and destined to become an all season favourite.

Currently available in UK Sizes M-XXL.
