Hunter Women's Gardener Short Wellington Boots Dark Olive-Clay

A women's rubber Wellington boot developed with specialised gardening features making them ideal for use at home or down the allotment.

Hand crafted in a new lower leg height and wider calf, allowing greater flexibility and ease of movement.

Features include, a dig pad at the centre of the sole plus thickened ankle to provide extra protection when using spades and forks, whilst a zigzag construction sole creates high grip & mud-release for heavier going terrain.

Perfect to keep beside the back door so why not step into Spring in style.
