Hoggs of Fife Harewood Lambswool Tweed Breeks

Unique to Hoggs of Fife, this bracken based tweed has hints of rust and navy running throughout and is woven from 100% new lambswool for warmth and softness.

The Harewood Range has been specifically created for people who like to spend their time outdoors and features a Teflon coating to protect against rain, stains, mud and liquids alongside a huge array of utilities for the days necessities in the field.

Complimenting beautifully the Harewood Jacket & Waistcoat for head to toe protection, these hard wearing breeks offer great freedom of movement for a day in the countryside and no self respecting shooting wardrobe should be without.
