Description

Hoggs of Fife Craigmore Quilted Gilet

A super soft, lightweight padded gilet with simple unfussy styling which performs equally as a stand alone garment or when called upon to layer on those much colder days.

Attentive designing with interactive loops to fasten directly into the Kincraig or Glenmore Jackets offer an extra level of insulation without impairing freedom of movement, especially when out in the field.

Further features include a full length front zip, zipped side pockets and an internal zipped pocket for those all important essentials.
