Description

Lifestyle Eden 2kW Greenhouse Heater

This purposely designed Propane Greenhouse Heater is a must for any keen gardener faced with challenging temperature drops over winter, sudden chills from the East or Condensation.

Manufactured in Stainless Steel and CE certified, the Eden heater is easy to operate with a quick start built in Piezo ignition and incorporates a flame failure device & oxygen depletion system if oxygen levels fall too low or the cabinet should topple over.

Delivering maximum performance and reliability to greenhouses up to 60sq ft, the Lifestyle Eden Pro features high quality long lasting blue flame burners ensuing low gas consumption and thermostatic controls which can be set between 7 - 32°C. Additional components include a chrome safety grill and reflector for directing heat exactly where needed.

Hose and Propane regulator supplied as standard.

Dimensions (cm): H36 x W33 x D13.
