Description

Bosch Universal Chain Pole

The Bosch Universal Chain Pole features include:

- Effortless pruning of tree branches at the ground level without using a ladder thanks to the telescopic pole and pivoting head.
- Continuous cutting performance without damaging trees
- Ergonomic, well balanced and lightweight with less strain on arms and shoulders
- One battery for all DIY and garden tools in the 18 volt Power4All lithium-ion cordless system
- Syneon chip - Intelligently controlled energy for every project
- Tip protector and bumper spike for better control on what you cut and undercut
- Oil level indicator and automatic chain lubrication preventing pruner from running dry

We are an authorised Bosch dealer and can provide full service back up and maintenance for your Bosch equipment.
