Alan Paine Combroom Ladies Juniper Tweed Field Jacket - was £379.96

In a rich new season colourway, this super stylish waterproof field jacket is the ideal choice for both town and country.

Beneath the pure soft wool tweed outer lies a waterproof & breathable membrane purposely designed to keep you comfortable in the most testing of weather whilst thoughtful tailoring allows for the perfect shooting fit.

Windbreaker cuffs will prevent any unwelcome gusts of wind rushing through the sleeves and there's plenty of space too for all important essentials including an internal media pocket, two generously sized front flap pockets and a concealed map pocket beneath the front placket.

Stylishly finished with a high soft mock suede collar for added warmth and eye catching contrast piping, a truly coherent piece of couture; modern and robust for the countryside yet perfectly apt for town & back.
