Description

Spear & Jackson Kew Leaf & Garden Debris Grabber

Featuring long handles and wide collecting blades, this Kew Leaf Grabber makes light work of the arduous task of collecting fallen leaves and garden debris without the need for excessive bending.

Specifically angled to promote good posture and great for anyone with restricted mobility or prone to back ache.

Designed with two large capacity scoops including rake teeth, the grabber can be put to good use all year round in the garden and will help keep your lawn in good condition throughout the winter months.

Combining over 250 years of gardening expertise, the Kew Collection has been tested by, used and recommended by the Kew Horticultural Team.

Standing height 920mm with 500mm wide Collecting Blades.
