HV-HT120ITK4-HKIT

Our Price: £295

Description

120iTK4-H with battery and charger

Husqvarna 120iTK4-H battery pole hedge trimmer kit combines petrol performance with zero direct emission and quiet operation. 120iTK4 is a Telescopic pole product, which means that you can combine the “body” of the machine with either a hedge trimmer or a pole saw attachment. This makes it a versatile and convenient tool for several operations depending on the task at hand. Equipped with a telescopic tube with up to 4m reach and split shaft for easy transportation. Adjustable 7 angled cutting deck for a convenient cutting position when cutting sides and hedges with different heights.
